

Accredited Training for Financial Service Professionals

Risk Reward are delighted to offer, in Budapest, training and qualification services with the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment (CISI), to deliver a series of prescribed exams to all financial services practitioners. Candidates will receive a qualification recognised by the international financial service industry, for each course successfully completed.

These 3 day intensive courses provide participants with the skills they need to develop their careers, and prepare for the CISI examinations that are used extensively by firms to meet their regulatory requirements around the world.
